Emergency homes open in Bolinas

by Ben Stocking
October 25, 2023

After work on Tuesday, a dozen Bolinas families received keys to their new homes in a temporary R.V. park just yards from their old ramshackle ranch housing. Children raced around the freshly graded grounds while their parents signed leases and toured trailers with staff from the Bolinas Community Land Trust, which plans to replace the condemned housing with permanent, affordable homes. (Ben Stocking / Point Reyes Light)

Azucena Vazquez opened the door to her new home and liked what she saw.

The trailer was snug and clean. It had hot and cold . . .
